

TRINITY TERM 2014 Seminar Series

Health and Social Care Integration: Policy and Practice

Thursdays, 12:30-2:00pm
(except 22 May)

1 May, Nuffield College – Butler Room

'History of integration initiatives in England: What we've learned'

Professor Gerald Wistow, Personal Social Services Research Unit (PSSRU), London School of Economics and Political Science (LSE)

8 May, Oxford Institute of Population Ageing

'Tectonic shifts in health care'

Professor Robert Kane, Minnesota Chair in Long-Term Care and Aging, University of Minnesota

15 May, Oxford Institute of Population Ageing

'Integration in practice'

Thirza Sawtell, Director of Strategy and Transformation, NHS North West London Collaboration of Clinical Commissioning Groups

22 May, Nuffield College – Large Lecture Room NB later time 1:00-2:30pm

'Reflections on past and current government policy on integration'

Rt. Hon. Stephen Dorrell MP, Chair, House of Commons Health Select Committee

29 May, Oxford Institute of Population Ageing

'Management of change and leadership in integrated care'

John Atkinson, Facilitator, National Systems Leadership Steering Group for Health and Social Care

5 June, Oxford Institute of Population Ageing

'Integrated care for acute illness in older patients: The interface between primary and secondary care'

Dr Daniel Lasserson, Senior Clinical Researcher, Nuffield Dept. of Primary Care Health Sciences, University of Oxford

12 June, Oxford Institute of Population Ageing

'The patient's experience with integrated care'

Don Redding, Director of Policy, National Voices

Chris Graham, Director of Research and Policy, Picker Institute Europe

19 June, Oxford Institute of Population Ageing

'Integrated care: Looking forward'

Nick Goodwin, CEO International Foundation for Integrated Care

For further information see www.ageing.ox.ac.uk/events or contact Anne Mackintosh anne.mackintosh@ageing.ox.ac.uk

The Oxford Institute of Population Ageing

Centre for Health Service Economics
& Organisation