

Hilary Term 2009 Seminar Series

Ageing and Ethnic Diversity

Convenors: Dr. Robin Mann, Research Fellow
Sue Marcus, Research Officer

22 January 09

Age, enterprise and change:

Prof. Naina Patel OBE,

Professor of Ageing and Ethnicity, International School for Communities, Rights and Inclusion,
University of Central Lancashire, Preston

29 January

Ageing, ethnicity and 'the other': challenges for inclusive research:

Dr Chih Hoong Sin, Office for Public Management, London

5 February

An ageing minority cohort: challenges for care services?

Prof. Mark Johnson, Professor of Diversity in Health and Social Care,
Centre for Evidence in Ethnicity, Health and Diversity, Faculty of Health and Life Sciences, De Montfort
University, Leicester

12 February

Ageing for Britain's ethnic groups: the national and local picture to mid-century:

Prof. Philip Rees, Professor of Population Geography, School of Geography,
University of Leeds

19 February

Narrative methods in researching ageing and ethnicity: methods, emotions and ethics:

Dr Yasmin Gunaratnam, Senior Research Fellow, Centre for Research on Health and Ethnicity,
University of Central Lancashire/Goldsmiths College, University of London

26 February

The negotiation of care for the elderly in transnational Pakistani families:

Dr Alison Shaw, Senior Research Fellow in Social Anthropology, The Ethox Centre,
Division of Public Health and Primary Health Care,
University of Oxford

5 March

Cross-cultural interactions in the context of Swedish elderly care: preliminary findings from an ethnographic study:

Dr Sandra Torres, Associate Professor in Sociology, NISAL (National Institute for the Study of Ageing and Later Life), Linköping University, Sweden

12 March

Families and caring in South Asian communities:

Prof. Christina Victor, Professor of Gerontology and Health Services Research, School of Health and Social Care, University of Reading

Dr Wendy Martin, School of Health and Social Care, University of Reading