

SEMINAR PROGRAMME

TRINITY TERM 2008

(Convenor: Jaco Hoffman – James Martin Research Fellow)

24 April

Mr Alex Bush, Help Age International, UK
Ageing research, policy and practise in sub-Saharan Africa: an NGO perspective

01 May

Professor Robert Cumming, University of Sydney, Australia
Ageing and health in sub-Saharan Africa: reflections of an Australian epidemiologist in Uganda

08 May

Dr Lucie Cluver, Social Policy and Social Work
"Makhulu" or "Mama"? Grandparenting in the context of AIDS

15 May

Professor Armando Barrientos, University of Manchester
Researching Ageing, wellbeing and development: Research Challenges and Policy Issues. A South / South comparison—Brazil / South Africa.

22 May

Ms Gloria Chepngeno Langat, University of Southampton
HIV/AIDS and older people living in urban areas: a case of older people in Nairobi City's slums.

29 May

Professor Sjaak van der Geest, University of Amsterdam
Resilience and the whims of reciprocity in old age: an example from Ghana

05 June

Professor Adesola Ogunniyi, University of Ibadan, Nigeria
Emerging medico-social challenges — a Nigerian perspective

12 June

Professor Vera Roos, North-West University, South Africa
Older Persons' experiences of drought: Applying the MMOGO™ method to explore indigenous knowledge practices.

*The Oxford Institute of Ageing hold Seminars every Thursday throughout Term, from 12:30 to 2.00 p.m.
Manor Road Building, Seminar Room G*

The Oxford Institute of
Ageing

