

Oxford Institute of Ageing

Michaelmas Term 2008/09 Seminar Series

Pension Reform and the Economics of Ageing

Convenor

Kenneth Howse

James Martin Senior Research Fellow
The Oxford Institute of Ageing

Thursdays 12.30 to 2.00 p.m.

Seminar Room G
Manor Road Building
Oxford OX1 3UQ

- 16 October 08 The Political Economy of Pension Reform in Germany: Dr Martin Seeleib-Kaiser, University of Oxford
- 23 October Retirement Policies and the Life Cycle: Current Trends and Future Prospects: Dr William Jackson, University of York
- 30 October No Seminar
- 6 November Restrictions on pension fund investment, a cost assessment Professor E Phillips Davis, Brunel University
- 13 November The impact of population ageing on aggregate savings: Dr Mahmoud Messkoub, Institute of Social Studies, The Hague
- 20 November The Economics of Frailty: Disability and Long-Term Care Systems: Dr Martin Karlsson, University of Oxford
- 27 November Private pensions and individual behaviour: implications for UK pension policy: Professor Gordon Clark, University of Oxford
- 4 December Ageing, public choice economics and the dwindling prospects for pension reform: Professor Philip Booth, Cass Business School, City University, and Institute for Economic Affairs, London.