

OXFORD INSTITUTE OF AGEING
SEMINAR SERIES – HILARY TERM 2004

“Health and Social Care for Ageing Populations”

Department of Sociology Lecture Theatre:
 St Ebbes, Oxford.      Thursdays 1.00 p.m. to 2.00 p.m.
 Convenor: Kenneth Howse

Title	Speaker	Date
Matching Care Management to Needs: How Well Did the Reforms Succeed?	Professor Bleddyn Davies, LSE	22 January
International comparisons of health care costs for ageing populations	Professor Alistair Gray, University of Oxford	29 January
Isolation and loneliness in later life	Professor Christina Victor, SGHMS	05 February
Oxford Project to Investigate Memory and ageing (OPTIMA): from diagnosis to prevention of dementia	Professor David Smith, University of Oxford	12 February
MAP65+ - disability in later life	Dr Rachel Goberman-Hill, University of Bristol	19 February
Psychiatric aspects of crime and the elderly	Dr Seena Fazel, University of Oxford	26 February
The future costs of dementia care	Adelina Comas-Herrera, LSE	04 March
A micro-simulation model for long term care Costs	Professor Ruth Hancock , University of Leicester	11 March

