

OXFORD INSTITUTE OF AGEING

SEMINAR SERIES – MICHAELMAS TERM 2003

Department of Sociology Lecture Theatre:
St Ebbes, Oxford. Thursdays 1.00 p.m. to 2.00 p.m.

Title	Speaker	Date
What does it mean to be a forced migrant and to be old in Russia?	Larissa Kossyguina: Centre of Russian and East European Studies, University of Birmingham	16 October
British Pakistani elderly without children: an invisible minority	Alison Shaw: Department of Human Sciences, Brunel University	23 October
The impact of migration on the funeral practices and attitudes to death of South Asian immigrants to the UK	Clare Wenger: Centre for Social Policy Research and Development, University of Wales, Bangor	30 October
They don't need it and I can't give it: filial support in South India	Penny Vera-Sanso Birkbeck College	6 November
Primary health care for older people in the developing world	Peter Lloyd-Sherlock University of East Anglia	13 November
The differential impacts of migration on older people in three Indonesian communities	Philip Kreager and Elisabeth Schroder-Butterfill: Oxford Institute of Ageing University of Oxford	20 November
Being old in an Angolan refugee settlement in Zambia: ethnographic case studies	Julia Powles: St Catherine's College, University of Oxford	27 November
Traditional caring and a changed world: elderly people in Albania since 1990	Beryl Nicholson	4 December